ACE Conference 2016

Thursday 17 and Friday 18 November 2016

University of Amsterdam

The Netherlands

UNIVERSITEIT VAN AMSTERDAM
Amsterdam Center for Law & Economics

Conference Venues

The program takes place at three venues in Amsterdam:

- Amsterdam Business School (registration, opening and parallel sessions), Plantage Muidergracht 12, 1018 TV Amsterdam
- Faculty of Economics and Business (plenary sessions and lunch), Roeterseiland Campus, Roetersstraat 11, 1018 WB Amsterdam
- Aula of the University of Amsterdam (keynote presentation), Singel 411, 1012 XM Amsterdam.

Small maps are included in this conference booklet. A full interactive map in Google Maps, which includes directions, is available at the conference website <http://ace2016.acle.nl>.

Registration desk

The registration desk will be staffed in the morning of 17 November and during breaks in the program, where you can obtain your badge and conference booklet and your movie tickets. There is an unguarded coat racks in the hall of the Amsterdam Business School. We have a guarded cloak room available for small bags and suitcases. The cloak room is not accessible in the afternoon. Make sure you'll pick up your belongings before we depart on the boat trip. The organization does not assume responsibility for lost items, so please keep all your valuable belongs with you.

Internet Access

The University of Amsterdam provides free internet access to the network 'UvA Open Wi-Fi'.

Arriving and Leaving Amsterdam

Schiphol airport is best reached by regular train service. The 15-minute train ride leaves every 10 to 15 minutes from Amsterdam Central Station, which is a 10-minute taxi ride from the conference venue (euro 7,50). A taxi from the conference venue to Schiphol airport would take about 25 minutes and costs approximately euro 60.

Public Transport

You can buy train tickets from the yellow machines at the railway station. Some machines take credit cards and/or coins, some machines only take Dutch bank cards. For other types of public transport (bus/metro/tram) you will need an electronic transport card ("ov chip card"). These can be purchased from the machines at most metro stations or at the GVB office at the central station. For more information, visit <http://en.gvb.nl/pages/home.aspx>. To plan your trip, visit: <http://9292.nl/en>.

Conference Organizing Committee

The organizing committee consists of Alexis Walckiers (Belgian Competition Authority), chairman of ACE 2016, and Maarten Pieter Schinkel (University of Amsterdam), local organizer.

Support staff

Reina Brouwer (Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Amsterdam), Dagny Hanne D. Kristiansen (ACE organization, Bergen), Timo Klein (Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Amsterdam) and Sidonie Rademaker (Amsterdam Center for Law & Economics, University of Amsterdam).

Lunch

On Thursday lunch is served at two locations: in the main hall of the M-building, close to registration, and at The Bridge restaurant in the C-building. The Bridge restaurant is located on the 4th floor of the building of the Faculty of Economics and Business of the Roeterseilandcampus. When entering the Faculty of Economics and Business, walk straight ahead and take the elevator in either in the C or the D building to the 4th floor. When you leave the elevator, turn left (D building) or right (C building) to enter the bridge restaurant.

*Your badge indicates where you are expected for lunch on Thursday.
On Friday, lunch is served at The Bridge for everybody.*

Boat Excursion

In the afternoon of November 17th we'll board for a boat excursion towards the dinner location, with a stopover at the Aula of the University of Amsterdam for the keynote speech of prof. Daniel Rubinfeld. We will board again and depart from the same boat stop to continue to the dinner at the EYE Film Museum.

Walking Dinner at EYE Film Museum

The EYE Film Museum is located at the IJ, north of Amsterdam Central Station. A walking dinner will be served in its foyer from 19.00 till 21.30 hours. Afterwards it is possible to continue social gathering in small setting in the bar (at your own expenses), or to attend IDFA documentary:

ABACUS: Small Enough to Jail

This documentary film directed by Steve James tells the story of the only U.S. bank that faced criminal charges in the wake of the 2008 financial crisis: a family-owned bank serving immigrants in Chinatown, New York. Charged with fraud, the Sung family vigorously defends themselves - and the Chinese-American community's financial way of life - over several years in an underdog battle for justice. Among the pleasures of this film is observing the humor and family bonds of the Sung family as they plot court strategy over meals in Chinatown restaurants. On the other side of the case, James interviews the prosecutors, including Vance. Was their motive to serve justice or to find a financial-industry scapegoat?

If you confirmed your ticket reservation online, a ticket will be held in your name at the registration desk. There is a limited number of extra tickets available.

Association of Competition Economics (ACE)

ACE brings together those working on the economics of competition in government, academia and the private sector and provides a forum for discussion and debate of both issues and cases. It is a not-for-profit organization based in Europe and is open to all those interested in the economics of competition. ACE's main activity is the annual conference that started in Madrid in 2003. The annual conference is typically held in November. In addition, ACE encourages the organization of local events such as workshops or conferences.

The Amsterdam Center for Law and Economics (ACLE)

ACLE is a joint initiative of the economics and law faculties of the University van Amsterdam. The objective of the ACLE is to promote high-quality academic research in fields at the interface of law and economics. The ACLE combines the research expertise of some twenty-five scholars in both disciplines, ranging from full professors to PhD students. The Center's main focus areas are: Competition & Regulation, Corporate Governance & Law, and Foundations of Law & Economics. In these three areas, the ACLE seeks to advance understanding, through both research and teaching.
